System Hub

FRONT OF HOUSE

Tables, parties, and events in one diary.

Covers, notes, and private-dining details stay on the booking, not on a sheet at the host stand or in someone's messages.

For Hosts, events managers, and owners whose diary is split across calls, email, and a spreadsheet.

THE PAPER VERSION

Special requests disappear between shifts, and cover counts are unclear once service starts.

IN THIS MODULE

- One diary for tables, parties, and events
- A live view of each service
- Notes and requests kept on the booking
- Guest details ready for the confirmation
- Event capacity and booking status
- Deposits, timings, and menu notes in the same record

Keep a booking app you already like. Use this for the diary that still lives on paper.
